

RIPOLL & ASSOCIATES

RIPOLL & ASSOCIATES is a firm specialized in International Law with a team of lawyers and tax consultants with more than 20 years of experience in taxation and international trade, who share the same enthusiasm, work ethics and efficiency standards.

In a demanding global market, excellence and a quick response to change are key tools for success.

In every international transaction, there is an array of intertwined factors which can contribute to a successful outcome. We examine these factors, reviewing each legal and tax angle, identifying contingencies and designing a suitable strategy with our clients and international extended team.

Education and training.

We believe continuous training and education guarantee our team's high level of performance and up to date knowledge of the legislation. Our team of lawyers and economists have extensive teaching experience in undergraduate and graduate studies, Economic Societies and other formative programs. We provide inhouse training to accounting departments in different aspects of international transactions.
